

What They Are Saying About Nancy...

“Nancy is obviously gifted. Her song shares a message of hope and comfort, essential in inspirational music.”

Gospel Music Association, Nashville, TN

“...an exceptionally sweet and powerful voice...”

Jane Lee Anderson, Asbury Park Press, Asbury Park, NJ

“Nancy presented a message of encouragement and strong personal faith...”

Patricia Grimm, Music Director, Valley Community Baptist Church, Avon, CT

“The fruits of what God has done in our congregation through your ministry here on Sunday are becoming more and more apparent...At the youth preparation seminar, we spoke about us being letters of Christ to those around us. We are being read. You were a letter of Christ to us. Your wonderful humble nature was good for us. I hope you will come to South Africa again.”

Pastor Edwin Dedekind, St. Peter's by the Lake Lutheran Church, Johannesburg, South Africa

“My father and I were drawn by the Lord to be present at your concert. We just lost my Mom due to complications of a simple surgery. We have been devastated and obviously struggling to find meaning from this tragedy. As you sang, neither of us could contain our tears. As we walked home that evening, I was able to share my faith with God. Thank you for your love and ministry.”

Carol Wuethrich, Member, Fellowship Alliance Chapel, Medford, NJ

“Thank you again for a wonderful service on Sunday morning and a great concert on Sunday evening. I have had wonderful comments about your visit all week long. You were truly a blessing. We all enjoyed having you with us. God bless your continued ministry for Him.”

Dr. James G. Keough, Jr., Minister, First Congregational Church, Clarkston, MI

“What a superb crossover artist Miss Scharff showed herself to be. She was comfortable with guitar, and then performing with operatic sophistication. Her ebullience was communicated through her powerful voice. This was a special performance, a concert given by a consummate artist.”

Lois Leibow, Atlanticville Newspaper, Long Branch, NJ

“Your concert...helped me to face the loss of my mother. When you sang “Bridge of Flowers” it did a lot for me. When you sang it, I closed my eyes and I could see Mom walking across the bridge.”

Gordon Hand, Member, First Presbyterian Church, Rahway, NJ

“A polished performance and a voice that would rival the greatest singers of the day. People rose to their feet as one, cheering and applauding, hoping for an encore because we didn't want the feeling to end. Surely God was smiling in His heaven.”

Jan Dorsey, Editor of Kings Kable Newsletter, King of Kings Lutheran Church, Middletown, NJ

“Your voice and musical talent are truly a gift from God. I wish the whole world could have attended—you brought so much peace and love to all of us.”

Judy Michelski, St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, New Monmouth, NJ

“At a time when worship leaders are exploring some fresh approaches to faithful worship, I believe you have been gifted to be a special blessing to the church. I personally enjoyed your music and openness to share your faith.”

Pastor Ched Brekke, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Chester Springs, PA

“You put your heart and soul into your ministry. To God be the glory! I appreciate your love for God and how you make that known. The worship of God was meaningful and awesome.”

Rev. Mark O'Shields, Almonesson United Methodist Church, Deptford, NJ

“I want to thank you for your wonderful leadership here at Saint Stephen Lutheran Church. We appreciated your lovely voice and “connection” to the congregation as you led us in song—also your obvious commitment to witnessing for our Lord.”

Rev. Anne Dwiggins, Saint Stephen Lutheran Church, Silver Spring, MD

“She has an amazing voice, and is one of the most spiritual people I've ever met.”

Ruth Kirschner, Church on the Square, The Villages, FL

“Hope Lutheran Church congregation was treated to an upbeat, fresh sound of musical praise when Christian recording artist Nancy Scharff performed at the Sunday morning worship service at Savannah Center.”

Madeline McClure, “Daily Sun,” The Villages, FL

“Then came her original musical rendering of Psalm 23 ...this piece left her audience hushed by awe of both the music and the message.”

Glenda Sanders, “Daily Sun,” The Villages, FL

“Your music is an inspiration to me. As I played it, I could hear the heart in the music. It is beautiful. You have blessed me tremendously and I thank God for you coming along at the right time. God is always on time.”

Cammie Berkeley, Member, New Creation Worship Centre, Bermuda
